Appointment of a Proxy

A proxy form is included with this notice of meeting. The Company encourages Shareholders to appoint the Chairman as your proxy. A shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the annual general meeting may appoint no more than two people as that shareholder's proxy to attend and vote for that shareholder at the meeting. A proxy can be an individual or a body corporate and need not be a member.

If a shareholder appoints two proxies, the proxy form may specify the proportion of voting rights each proxy is appointed to exercise on a poll. If no proportions are specified, each proxy may exercise half of the available votes (disregarding fractions) on a poll. If a shareholder appoints two proxies, neither is entitled to vote on a show of hands if more than one proxy attends the meeting.

If the appointment of a proxy specifies the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution:

- The proxy is not required to vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote as directed (subject to any applicable voting exclusions),
- If the proxy has two or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution, the proxy must not vote on a show of hands,
- If the proxy is not the Chairman of the AGM, the proxy need not vote on a poll but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote as directed (subject to any applicable voting restrictions), and

- If the proxy is the Chairman of the AGM, the proxy must vote on a poll and must vote as directed.

If a poll has been duly demanded in relation to a proposed resolution; and you have appointed a proxy (other than the Chairman of the meeting) and specified the way the proxy is to vote on the resolution; and either the proxy is not recorded as attending the annual general meeting or attends the annual general meeting but does not vote on the resolution, the Chairman of the meeting will, before voting on the resolution closes, be taken to be appointed as your proxy for the purposes of voting on that resolution and must vote in accordance with your written direction.

If you appoint the Chairman of the meeting as your proxy (including by default) and you do not specify how the proxy is to vote, you expressly authorise the Chairman to exercise your proxy. The Chair intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of items 3 and 4 on the agenda for the meeting.

Corporate Shareholders

Corporate Shareholders should comply with the execution requirements set out on the proxy form or otherwise with the provisions of section 127 of the Corporations Act. - a) two directors of the company;
- b) a director and a company secretary of the company; or
- c) for a proprietary company that has a sole director who is also the sole company secretary, that director.

A corporation may elect to appoint an individual to act as its representative in accordance with section 250D of the Corporations Act, in which case the Company will require a certificate of appointment of the corporate representative executed in accordance with the Corporations Act. The certificate of appointment must be lodged with the Company and/or the Company's share registry before the Annual General Meeting or at the registration desk on the day of the Annual General Meeting.

A representative may be authorised for a single meeting or all meetings of Perth Markets Limited and an authorisation for more than one meeting must be stated on the authorising instrument.

The Board of Directors of Perth Markets Group Limited encourages shareholders who are appointing proxies to direct their proxies how to vote on each resolution by crossing either a "For", "Against", or "Abstain" box before lodging their proxy form so that their proxy will vote on their behalf in accordance with their instructions.
